Concerning item V.

1. A prosthesis set as defined in the preamble of claim 1 is generally known in the prior art (such as from DE-A-3 125 268).

The problem of the invention was to provide a prosthesis set where the prosthesis sleeve is better anchored to the amputated limb or stump.

This problem is solved in that the anchoring part's head has a width that exceeds the width of the stump so that there is a local expansion/bulge at the amputated limb's end, and that the external prosthesis has an internal shape adapted to the local expansion whereby a local anchorage, suspension and support of the prosthesis sleeve is established.

These features are novel and they cannot be derived in an obvious manner from the cited A-documents.

Moreover, such an apparatus is industrially applicable such that all the requirements of Art. 33(2)-(4) PCT are met.

2. The dependent claims 2-9 define particular embodiments of the invention according to claim 1. Thus, these claims also meet the requirements of Art. 33(2)-(4) PCT.
